

Coconut Half Shell/ Three Quarter Shell Hideouts

Our Coconut Shell Hideouts are crafted from authentic coconut shells to provide reliable shelters for reptiles, amphibians, and small pets. Our Coconut Shell Hideouts are available in both half and three-quarter shell designs. These hideouts are designed with the natural composition of 100% real coconut shells, offering a cool and inviting refuge for your animals while shielding them from extreme temperatures.

Unlike metal alternatives, our Coconut Shell Hideouts are rust-resistant, ensuring long-lasting durability. The unaltered composition of the coconut shells makes them highly enticing to pets, serving as preferred hiding spots and comfortable sleeping sanctuaries. Additionally, the organic beauty and textures of the coconut shells enhance the aesthetic appeal of your pet's habitat, adding a touch of authenticity and natural charm.

Choose our Coconut Shell Hideouts as practical and visually appealing shelters that surpass expectations. They provide a safe retreat for your pets, reducing stress levels and promoting their overall well-being. These hideouts create a calming atmosphere within the enclosure, allowing your animals to find solace in their cozy interiors.

Elevate your pet's habitat with our Coconut Shell Hideouts, where functionality and natural beauty converge. Experience the benefits of providing your reptiles, amphibians, and small pets with reliable shelters that blend seamlessly into their environment.
